

The guest speaker will review unemployment compensation from its inception to today's outlook. He will provide guidance on how the states view corporate structure changes, their impact on unemployment tax rates and the proper due diligence to prevent unexpected tax increases. Finally, he will provide insight into SUTA dumping statutes and how employers can best guard against being audited for this. Wayne Rottger has over 30 years of experience in the unemployment tax cost control industry.